5. Promotional Communications. We may use your personal information to send you updates (by regular mail or email) about our products and/or services, including promotions or new products and/or services.

We have a legitimate interest in processing your personal information for promotional purposes (see “How and Why We Use Your Personal Information,” above). This means we do not usually need your consent to send you promotional communications. However, where consent is needed, we will ask for this consent separately and clearly.

We will always treat your personal information with the utmost respect and never, for marketing purposes, sell that information to or share it with other organizations outside of EdgeCo.

You have the right to opt out of receiving promotional communications at any time by:

- Using the “unsubscribe” link in emails; or
- Submitting a request according to “How to Contact Us,” below.

We may ask you to confirm or update your marketing preferences if you instruct us to provide further products and/or services in the future, or if there are changes in the law, regulation, or the structure of our business.

6. Who Has Access to Your Personal Information: We occasionally share consumers' personal information with:

- Our affiliates, including companies within EdgeCo (as defined above);
- Service providers, with whom we contract to supply you with our products and services, such as payment, recordkeeping and other administrative service providers;
- Other contractors with whom we contract to help us run our business, such as website hosts;
- Our insurers and brokers; and
- Our bank(s).

We only allow our service providers and contractors to handle your personal information if we are assured that they take appropriate measures to protect your personal information. We also impose contractual obligations on service providers and contractors in order to ensure that they protect your personal information and only use your personal information to provide services to us and to you. We may also share personal information with external auditors, as appropriate and necessary to accomplish an audit of our accounts.

We may disclose and exchange information with law enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

We may also need to share some personal information with other parties, such as potential buyers of some or all of our business or during a re-structuring. We will typically anonymize information, but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations.

We will not share your personal information, including such information we may hold for consumers under 16 years of age, except as necessary to conduct our business operations and provide you with the products and services related thereto.

Sensitive personal information is defined as: 1) personal information that reveals a consumer's: various specific identity numbers; various accounts' security access data; precise geolocation; racial or ethnic origin, religious or philosophical beliefs, or union membership; contents of mail, email, and text messages; genetic data; and 2) the processing of biometric information for the purpose of uniquely identifying a consumer; and personal information collected and analyzed concerning a consumer's health, sex life, or sexual orientation. EdgeCo does not use or disclose sensitive personal information other than for providing services to you as described above.

7. Personal Information Sold or Disclosed for a Business Purpose. We do not sell your personal information, including any such information we may hold for consumers under 16 years of age. In the preceding 12 months, we have disclosed for a business purpose to one or more third parties the following categories of personal information that identify, relate to, describe, is capable of being associated with or which could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household:
 - Identifiers (e.g., a real name, alias, postal address, unique personal identifier, online identifier, Internet Protocol address, email address, account name or username, social security number, driver's license number, passport number, or other similar identifiers);
 - Other information that identifies, relates to, describes or is capable of being associated with a particular consumer, including, but not limited to their: signature, social security number, physical characteristics or description, telephone number, passport number, state identification card number, employment, bank account number or other financial information;

 - Inferences drawn from any of the information identified above to create a profile about a consumer reflecting the consumer's preferences, characteristics, psychological trends, predispositions, behavior, attitudes, intelligence, abilities, and aptitudes.
8. Where Your Personal Information is Held. Information may be held at our offices and those of our affiliates and associated persons or representatives, as well as with third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above (see above: "Who We Provide with Your Personal Information," above).
9. How Long Your Personal Information Will Be Kept. We will keep your personal information while you have an account with us or while we are providing products and/or services to you. Thereafter, we will keep your personal information for as long as is necessary:
- to respond to any questions, complaints or claims made by you or on your behalf;
 - to show that we treated you fairly; or
 - to keep records, and for the duration of any record retention period(s), required by law.

We will not retain your personal information for longer than necessary for the purposes set out in this policy. Different retention periods apply to different types of personal information, but generally we retain records (including those containing personal information) for up to seven years, in accordance with applicable requirements under statutes and regulations promulgated by federal regulators and their authorized delegates (e.g., Securities and Exchange Commission, Internal Revenue Service, Department of Labor).

When it is no longer necessary to retain your personal information, we will delete or anonymize it.

10. Keeping Your Personal Information Secure. We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost or used or accessed in an unauthorized way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to access it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorized manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality. [We continually test our systems ensuring we proactively monitor for new threats and we follow industry standards for information security. We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator in the event of a suspected data security breach and where we are legally required to do so.

11. How to Exercise Your Rights. If you would like to exercise any of your rights as described in this Privacy Policy, including your right to know your personal information in our records, please:

- Complete a data subject request form available on our website at <https://www.edgecoholdings.com/>, CCPA Request button;
- Call us, toll-free, at 833-855-5838; or
- Email us at ccparequests@edgecoholdings.com.

We do not sell your personal information. We do not share your personal information, including sensitive personal information, other than with service providers and contractors employed by us to provide services to you as described above.

Please note that you may only make two CCPA-related data access or data portability disclosure requests within a 12-month period.

If you choose to contact us using any of the methods above, you will need to provide us with:

- Enough information to identify you (e.g., your full name, address AND account name/number);
- Proof of your identity and address (e.g., a copy of your driver's license, state identification card or passport AND a recent utility or credit card bill); and
- A description of the right you wish to exercise and the information to which your request relates.

We are not obligated to make a data access or data portability disclosure if we cannot verify that the person making the request is either the person about whom we collected information or someone authorized to act on such person's behalf.

Any personal information we collect from you to verify your identity in connection with your request will be used solely for the purposes of verification.

12. Changes to This Privacy Notice. This privacy notice was published on January 1, 2020, and last updated on November 22, 2022.

We may change this privacy notice from time to time. When we do, we will inform you via our website or, only where appropriate, other means of contact such as email.
